Medical Assistance Transportation Program (MATP)

MATP is a special transportation service for people who receive Medical Assistance. This program is not for emergencies. (If you have an emergency, call 911.) To get MATP services, you have to register for the service by calling your county service number listed below. You will need to show your Pennsylvania ACCESS card when receiving these services.

MATP services phone numbers may change. Please visit <http://matp.pa.gov> for the most up-to-date phone numbers.
